OUR SERVICES

BRANDING

Brands are business tools that drive commercial value.

Our data-driven approach helps you transform your brand to accelerate growth and insulate you against competitive threats. Each phase is critical to the brand-building process, helping to boost brand equity and increase market share.

Whether you are launching a new brand or refreshing an existing one, we have the team and the processes to bring your brand to life.

What you get

BRAND RESEARCH

Brand research yields important insights that help you understand your brand's current value, its future potential, and the roadblocks in between. This is especially critical in advance of strategic moves like mergers and acquisitions, or during times of accelerated growth or market uncertainty.

From competitive audits to customer interviews, we draw on a range of brand research methodologies to uncover the insights needed to build a more valuable brand. This evidence-based approach helps you make confident decisions about the future of your business.

SERVICES :

- > Competitive Analysis
- > Brand Equity Research
- > Internal Brand Research
- > Customer Research

OUR SERVICES

BRANDING STRATEGY, IDENTITY & ACTIVATION

BRAND STRATEGY

Brand strategy bridges the divide between business strategy and customer experience. Informed by research, our brand strategy services help you build a foundation for the future of your brand by defining a positioning platform that drives relevance and differentiation.

Brand strategy is both functional and inspirational. It lays the groundwork for boosting customer loyalty and building brand equity. Using proven behavioural sciences techniques, we work collaboratively with your team to build a brand that will drive business growth.

SERVICES

- > Brand Positioning
- > Brand Story
- > Brand Architecture
- > Naming
- > UX Strategy
- > Communication Strategy

BRAND IDENTITY

Strong brands have distinct visual and verbal identities that are instantly recognizable in every brand experience. Because they're informed by data-driven strategy, the brand identity systems we create connect with audiences in meaningful ways, boosting brand awareness and customer loyalty.

In every interaction with every audience, your brand identity should be both relevant and differentiated. By defining how your brand looks and sounds across touch-points, we ensure that its presence in the marketplace is cohesive and memorable, building the equity that is essential to growth.

- > Photography & Video • Content Creation
- > Packaging
- > User Experience
- > Marketing Collateral • Environments

BRAND ACTIVATION

Even the best strategy has no practical value until it's effectively implemented. Our brand activation services help ensure that your brand remains primed for growth far beyond its initial launch. They help you stay relevant in a fast-paced and ever-changing market landscape.

Internally, brand activation includes aligning your team around culture and positioning. Externally, it means continually optimizing your brand experience for impact and performance. These critical measures are how you maximize the return on your branding investment.

PUBLIC RELATIONS & COMMUNICATION

(Internal & External)

Public relations is more than just media relations and positive publicity. While this is crucial, effective public relations is about broader communications strategies – ones that tackle media, stakeholders, community, employees and consumers. It's about integration of all marketing strategies to deliver the best possible results for clients in line with a comprehensive communications strategy that defines desired outcomes. There is no business, irrespective of size, that will not benefit from positive public relations. No matter the size of your business, public relations will play a pivotal role in your stakeholder relations and is the single most cost-effective means of influencing the opinions and perceptions that stakeholders have of your organisation. At Teluka Mzuri, we believe that words have tremendous power. They can make or break an organisation and so, risk management of all your communications is our priority. The power of positive publicity cannot be overstated. Our PR team can help craft your content, shape your corporate/ product narrative and then utilize our media contacts to generate a steady stream of editorial coverage.

WHAT YOU GET:

- > Press releases
- > Feature stories
- > Case studies
- > Thought leadership pieces • White-papers
- > Blogs
- > Targeted distribution
- > Proactive editorial outreach • Interviews/ Q&A's
- > Company profiles
- > Event/press coverage
- > Reporting & analysis

We can meet your company's needs of delivering information to the public through the best local media networks.
